Dear Mr. Sharman,

I should be grateful if you would cause enquiries to be made as to the present whereabouts of Mr. Harold Owen Thorpe, a British subject, who is supposed to have left Yokohama, as a seaman, in September 1940, and believed to be in Shanghai. He was last registered here in 1939 when he gave his address as 5 Yang Terrace, Weihaiwei Road.

I should also be grateful for any information as to the whereabouts of his brother, Bruce Arthur Thorpe, and his wife, who are supposed to have returned to their home in Shanghai. Their last address in Shanghai being given as c/o Shanghai Telephone Company, or 9 Ching Yang Road, off Dixwell Road.

Yours sincerely,

Cox
